

LISTENER QUIZ Windsor, 2016

Part 2 – Questions (read aloud to solvers)

- 1 It is not especially well-known for its officers employing unorthodox methods to keep order, yet what is the common name of the English prison that was rebuilt following a major riot in 1990?
- 2 (Rank and surname) Over the course of a number of films, whose incompetence eventually transforms his direct superior (a character called Dreyfus) into a homicidal psychotic?
- 3 Which weekly puzzle for a British listings magazine has been compiled by Roger Prebble since 1999?
- 4 Since 1925, the slogan “Never Knowingly Undersold” has been used by which British department store chain, founded in 1864?
- 5 Manufactured between 1961 & 1975, (a) what make of (b) what car “sprang on the scene with 150 mph and a sub-7 second 0-60 time, monocoque construction, disc brakes, rack and pinion steering, independent front and rear suspension, and unrivalled looks”?
- 6 The town of Bayreuth, in Bavaria, is world famous for its annual festival at which whose compositions are presented?
- 7 What name connects an 18th Century ship used by James Cook in Pacific exploration with NASA’s last operational space shuttle?
- 8 Mexico City, Munich, Moscow: which M is missing from this consecutive sporting list?
- 9 Founded in 1701, which Ivy League University is based at New Haven, Connecticut? LINK (last parts of) 8&9
- 10 What are the pictures in? Initial letters of the above answers might assist.

Casket competition

A suitable description, please, of the mystery person (3,6,5) containing a consecutive letter-mixture of his name.