

And the winner is...

LISTENER DINNER QUIZ 2022

Part 2: Clues Peripheral clues all lead to five-letter answers which, when ordered correctly, form a word chain in which each is formed by changing one letter of its predecessor (e.g. SCOTS–SPOTS–SPITS–SPINS–SPINE–OPINE). The chain links the unclued D and E.

Part 1: Pictures

SET A

the character

1

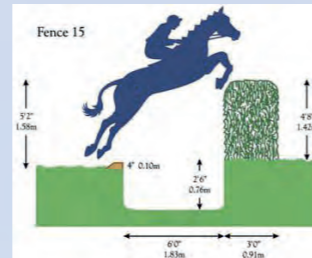

the expanse of water

2

3

the Grand National fence

4

the tree

5

the card

6

Missing word (the longer of the two options)?

A:

SET B

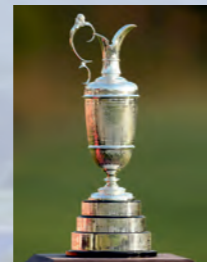

the character

1

the related breakfast

2

its common name

3

4

the exhibitionist

5

6

The location?

B:

SET C

the product

1

2

3

the building in the background

4

5

the artefact

6

The common missing word (after the answers are correctly paired)?

C:

Teams should write a normal cryptic clue to the famous winner at "the A of B C" (14 letters), whose identity is confirmed by D E.

Write your answers and your clue on the separate answer sheet provided (one per table).

Dog corners a Brit in space

Good Doctor Candy

Munro and Wainwright, say, returned one in basket

Endures Paddington and Paddington 2?

Posh pad's lost second position

Next to piano, they hear English tenor

Sound of gun that silencer produces?

Pre-prandially, thanks cricketer

Actor John doing voiceover?

Confront Bishop ahead of Listener Dinner's starter

Bedroom — one or two?